Eternal Father, I offer You the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your dearly beloved Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

In 1933, Our Lord gave St. Faustina Kowalska a striking vision of His Mercy.

The Divine Mercy is a form of God's compassion, an act of grace based on trust and forgiveness. The Chaplet of the Divine Mercy, is a Christian devotion to the Divine Mercy, which is based on the Christological apparitions of Jesus reported by St. Faustina Kowalska.

Jesus gave St. Faustina this pray and made special promises to go along with praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet, with sincerity. Jesus said to her of this devotion, say unceasingly this chaplet that I have taught you. Anyone who says it will receive great Mercy at the hour of death. Even the most hardened sinner, if he recites this chaplet even once, will receive grace from My Infinite Mercy. I want the whole world to know My Infinite Mercy.

Recite the Divine Mercy Chaplet, everyday possible, and spread the word of God's Infinite Mercy.

For the sake of His Sorrowful Passion have mercy on us and on the whole world. God blessed the earth for the sake of Jesus. Amen!

Our Alfred Weldon Scholarship applications are available for you to access & download on our Council site: koc12710.org. The deadline will be May 30th. Recipients will be notified by June 7th. Good luck to all our applicants.

May God's peace and blessings be with you and your family,

Statement on the Death of Pope Francis
By Most Reverend Robert J. McManus, Bishop of Worcester

We are all saddened to hear of the death of our Holy Father on this Easter Monday. I join my prayers to those of Catholics worldwide that God welcome him into eternal life.

For 12 years as our Holy Father, Pope Francis consistently preached to the world that one of the key tenets of being a follower of Jesus Christ is to accompany others who seek God's love.

The beauty of the Catholic faith is like a multifaceted diamond. Each pope brings a focus on one of the facets through which we can deepen our appreciation of our faith and the mission to which we are called. His focus was on the pastoral facet, best understood when we hear his name in Spanish: Papa Francisco. He taught us all to accompany our brothers and sisters, whether in the mainstream or on the periphery of society, so that they may experience God's love through our own love for them.

It is fitting that we will commend him to Almighty God in this Jubilee Year of Hope.
Perhaps his greatest legacy is that, as the Vicar of Christ, he focused this Jubilee Year on the reality that the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, which we just celebrated this Easter, is the key to hope for eternal life in the loving presence of God. May he now rest in the peace of God's love. Amen.

April 21, 2025

Faustina Kowalska

August 25, 1905 – October 5, 1938
Feast Day—October 5

On Divine Mercy Sunday, celebrated the weekend after Easter, the Gospel tells the story of when Jesus appeared in a locked room where the disciples were hiding.

John 20:19-23

> Jesus came and stood in their midst
> and said to them, "Peace be with you."
> When he had said this, he showed them
> his hands and his side.
> The disciples rejoiced when > they saw the Lord.
> Jesus said to them again,
> "Peace be with you.
> As the Father has sent me, so I send you."
> And when he had said this, he breathed
> on them and said to them,
> "Receive the Holy Spirit.
> Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them,
> and whose sins you retain are retained."

We recognize St. Faustina as the Saint of the Week this week, even though her feast is in October, because of her role in spreading the message of Divine Mercy. Jesus appeared to her many times and spoke of his great and unfathomable mercy to those who would trust in him. Jesus told St. Faustina that he wanted the Sunday after Easter to be celebrated as a "Feast of Mercy," as a refuge for all souls, especially poor sinners.

St. Faustina was born in 1905 into a poor Polish family and experienced a religious calling from a young age. She initially deferred pursuing a religious vocation to help her family with her earnings as a housekeeper. At age 19, after a vision of the suffering Jesus, she earnestly sought entrance into religious life. Initially turned away by many convents, she entered the order of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy in August 1925. In April 1928, she took her first vows with her parents in attendance.

St. Faustina served the Congregation in Krakow, Plock, and Vilnius as a cook, gardener, and porter. While living a simple religious life, she grew in great union with God, experiencing profound sufferings as well as consolations. She had many visions of Jesus and wrote a diary of her experiences. St. Faustina died from tuberculosis at the age of 33 in 1938.

In 1959, the Vatican suppressed the Divine Mercy devotion. But in 1978, the Sacred Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith lifted the suppression after new original documents were examined and texts were retranslated. Then-Cardinal Karol Wojtyla strongly promoted the message of Divine Mercy. Later, as Pope John Paul II, he canonized St. Faustina, in April 2000, and designated the Second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday. Because of her work fostering devotion to Divine Mercy, St. Faustina is known as the "apostle of Divine Mercy."
